

Youth Leadership Program

Fall 2003

Seattle Parks and Recreation

Are you a High School Student?

Looking for a fun community service project?

Want to help plan and lead a teen training project?

Want to develop marketable skills?

Want to change the world – or just your neighborhood?

The Prudential Youth Leadership Program

October 1st – December 17th

Wednesdays 4 – 6:30pm

@

South Park Community Center

8319 8th Avenue South

Seattle Parks and Recreation
Teen Office
(206) 684-7136
dave.gilbertson@seattle.gov

Next Generation Consultants

The Seattle Parks and Recreation, through the PRO Parks Levy, offers teenagers innovative leadership and community service training programs that provide the skills and contacts necessary to play active, meaningful roles in improving the quality of life in our communities.

The Prudential Youth Leadership Institute is training typically available only to Fortune 500 corporate executives. Institute teens understand the need and potential for community service, and demonstrate how young people can apply leadership skills to make their communities better places to live.